Disney Preview and Family Day at the Phoenix

The Phoenix Cinema is holding an exclusive preview of Holes, the new Disney film, on Sunday 12 October. This adventure film set in the Texas desert is based on the novel by Louis Sachar, which in 1998 won the Newbery award, made annually to writers of children's literature by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association.

It stars Sigourney Weaver, John Voight, Patricia Arquette, John Blake Neilson and the Emmy-Award-winner Shia Lebeouf. There will be a discounted family ticket price and the preview will be part of an entire family day out with a range of film-related activities, as well as refreshments and goodie bags for younger viewers.

This activity day is also intended to be a taster for children who are thinking of going to the Freddie's film club on Saturday morning. Films coming up at the Freddie's club this month are The Adventures of Robin Hood (11 October) and Rugrats Go Wild (25 October).

Autumn

By Michael Solomons

The Summer's drawing to its end,
The sun has lost its glow;
The reds and browns begin to blend
And chill winds start to blow.
Clouds begin to darken the sky,
We start to wrap up warm;
And as the days all hurry by
We shelter from the storm.
The fire burns brightly in the grate
As we hear many a tale;
We sing our songs and stay up late
And drink our dark brown ale.
Oh! Guy Fawkes night is here once more,
Fireworks light up the dark;
And squirrels gather nuts to store.
You see them in the park.
Yes! Autumn's with us once again,
But we're still full of cheer.
The sun will shine – there'll be no rain
When Summer comes next year.
But as I look upon this scene
That is so very new,
The browns have covered all the green,
It's such a lovely view.
The world is full of many things
That are so bright and gay;
I thank God for joy that Autumn brings,
And colours of this day.

NOT the East Finchley Library Consultation

By John Dearing

- Question 1: Have you heard about the proposals for the development of an improved block of flats on the old library building?
- Question 2: How did you first hear about these proposals? Who told you? Where do they live?
- Question 3: What type of writing are you able to read? Did you know we have a service called a library, where you can borrow books from us? No? Good!
- Question 4: How often do you use the existing East Finchley library? Are you aware that we know the answer to this already? Do you realise that the next question presumes the answer to this question? Is the bias in this questionnaire too blatant?
- Question 5: Why do you never use or rarely use the East Finchley Library? Why have we asked such a closed and loaded question? Should we not have also asked regular users what they like about the existing facilities?
- Question 6: Modern Libraries can provide a wide range of services, most of them nothing at all to do with books, which are boring, and take up lots of space that the Council could be selling off to developers! In general how important are boring books to you?
- Question 7: Barnet Council could have a great deal to gain from a supermarket library development on the Park House site. Please tick the option we prefer.
- Question 8: If a new library service is developed in East Finchley, would you use it more often than the existing service, or more often than the existing service?
- Question 9: Please tell us what products you would like to see in a new supermarket boring books you would like to see in the new library?
- Question 10: Are there any other comments you would like to make about the fait accompli we are going to foist upon the residents of East Finchley?.

Record Time Music Appreciation Society

By Diana Cormack

Haringey Recorded Music Society can definitely describe itself as a long player, having been set up in 1946. Since then it has had a variety of meeting places along with a number of illustrious guest speakers from all over the world, giving members the chance to listen to and discuss their music.

Chairman David Mouldon who, until his recent retirement, was based at East Finchley music library describes the present day gatherings as informal. They are held in host members' homes, at least half of which are in N2, and last for about two hours. A speaker chooses and introduces the music for the evening's discussion. The society, which has links with other local groups, has an annual subscription of £5, or £2 per meeting if you prefer.

So if you fancy listening to records in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere where you can increase or spread your musical knowledge, why not give it a try? Contact David Mouldon on 8361 1696 daily (but not between 11am and 2pm)
